

The PGDM MOM Program at IIBS Bangalore is a transformative orientation initiative designed to equip the 2025–27 batch with essential managerial skills, industry insights, and corporate readiness. Through expert sessions and interactive engagements, it lays a strong foundation for leadership, innovation, and professional growth.

Opening Doors to Leadership: IIBS Welcomes New PGDM Batch

IIBS Bangalore proudly welcomed the PGDM Batch 2025–27 to campus, marking the beginning of an exciting new academic journey. With over 200 enthusiastic and ambitious students reporting, the day was filled with energy, hope, and anticipation.

As part of our NBA-accredited, AICTE and AIU-approved PGDM program, these future leaders are set to experience a transformative curriculum focused on academic excellence, industry integration, and leadership development. The Reporting Day featured engaging orientation sessions, faculty introductions, campus tours, and interactive bonding activities, creating a vibrant and welcoming environment for all. We are thrilled to have the new batch join the IIBS family and look forward to supporting their journey toward becoming industry-ready professionals.

Welcoming Future Leaders: PGDM Batch 2025–27

A grand and inspiring start marked the Orientation Programme for the PGDM Batch 2025–27 at IIBS Bangalore, held on 09 July 2025. We were honoured to welcome Ms. Thapaswini Srinivas as the Chief Guest, whose insightful address and encouraging words added immense value to the occasion and left a lasting impression on the students. Her presence set a motivational tone for the beginning of their academic journey. The Orientation Programme was designed to introduce environment, core values, and professional expectations. With sessions led by industry experts, academic heads, and successful alumni, students were given a comprehensive overview of the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead. These interactions provided valuable guidance, built confidence, and encouraged a mindset of continuous learning and growth. The programme also aimed to foster a sense of community, collaboration, and leadership among the new batch. As students begin this important phase of their journey, they are encouraged to embrace learning, engage in meaningful networking, and strive for excellence.

The Moment Begins: IIBS Sets the Stage for Future Leaders

Drag to Point – Dr. Kethan Manyam

An intellectually stimulating session that delved into the nuances of precision thinking, the significance of well-defined goals, and the strategic finesse required to ensure every managerial decision carries purposeful impact in a complex business environment.

My Management World – Dr. Jaggaiah Tripuraneni

A deeply immersive exploration into the ever-evolving landscape of management, this session illuminated the critical competencies and adaptive mindset essential for aspiring leaders to navigate and excel in today's global business arena.

Knowledge Paradise – Mr. Umesh Puttaraju

Mr. Puttaraju emphasized the library as a cornerstone of academic excellence, introducing students to a wealth of resources including e-books, research databases, and scholarly journals. He inspired learners to embrace the library as a gateway to lifelong learning and intellectual exploration.

Career Launch Pad – Mr. Vivek Chandrashekar

Mr. Chandrashekar delivered an insightful session on how IIBS nurtures career readiness through structured grooming, skill development, and strategic placement support, empowering students to thrive in a competitive corporate landscape.

Corporate Connect Session

We Connect: Insights from the Corporate World

For the PGDM 2025–27 batch, Mr. Sai Sreekar delivered an insightful and engaging session that seamlessly connected academic learning with real-world corporate practices. Drawing from his rich professional journey, he shared valuable lessons on the importance of adaptability, strategic thinking, and continuous learning as critical pillars of long-term career success. He also offered an in-depth perspective on emerging industry trends, emphasizing how the modern business environment demands agility, innovation, and a proactive mindset. Highlighting the need to align academic knowledge with evolving corporate expectations, Mr. Sreekar inspired students to take charge of their professional growth with confidence, purpose, and a forward-thinking approach.

Practical Insights and Relationship Building

Mr. Bhagyachand led an engaging and interactive session for the PGDM 2025–27 batch, emphasizing the vital role of team building in both academic and professional settings. Using practical activities, real-life examples, and Neuro-Linguistic Programming techniques, he demonstrated how effective teamwork drives performance, innovation, and motivation. The session covered key topics such as high-performance team characteristics, communication, trust, conflict resolution, and leadership, helping students develop collaboration skills, emotional intelligence, and accountability. As a result, participants gained valuable insights into team dynamics and enhanced their confidence and motivation for future collaborative endeavors.

Bridging Theory and Practice: Leadership Insights with Mr. Sachin Raj

This insightful session bridged the gap between academic concepts and real-world leadership challenges. Mr. Sachin Raj shared his extensive experience in the corporate sector, offering practical perspectives on effective management, strategic decision-making, and leadership agility. He emphasized the importance of emotional intelligence, ethical leadership, and adaptability in navigating complex business environments. Through engaging discussions and real-life examples, students gained a deeper understanding of the skills and mindset required to excel as future leaders in a rapidly evolving corporate landscape.

Empowering Corporate Readiness: A Mindset Masterclass by Dr. Mahesh Pavan

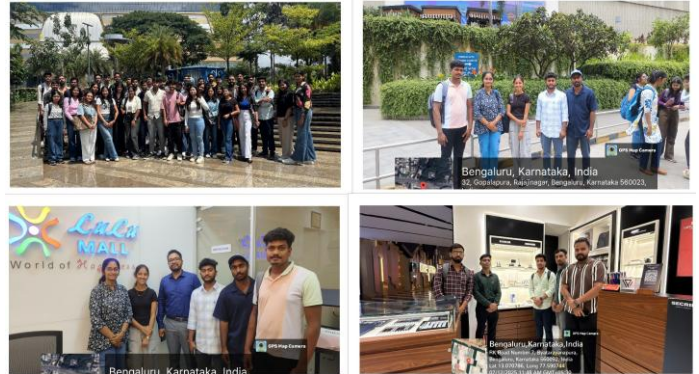

Dr. Mahesh Pavan delivered a compelling and thought-provoking session on "Setting the Mindset for Corporate Connect" for the PGDM Batch 2025–27 at IIBS. He underscored the critical need for aligning personal aspirations with the dynamic demands of the corporate landscape. Emphasizing adaptability, strategic thinking, and professional integrity, Dr. Pavan inspired students to cultivate a future-ready mindset and to navigate their career paths with clarity, conviction, and purpose. The session also encouraged students to embrace continuous learning and to build resilience in the face of evolving business challenges. It served as a powerful foundation for their transition from campus to corporate.

Bangalore Darshan

The Bangalore Darshan for new PGDM students includes a visit to LuLu Mall and Mall of Asia in Bangalore. These popular malls offer a vibrant mix of shopping, dining, and entertainment options, allowing students to explore the city's modern lifestyle and commercial hubs. The visit provides a chance for students to relax, socialize, and experience Bangalore's dynamic environment beyond the classroom, promoting bonding and experiential learning among the new batch. It also helps students familiarize themselves with important city landmarks and develop a sense of belonging in their new academic and social setting. Such outings contribute to building a balanced and enriching student life.

Nandi Hills Visit: Fostering Collaboration and Connection

The PGDM 2025–27 batch visited Nandi Hills for an enriching experiential learning trip that offered a refreshing break from the classroom and an opportunity to connect with nature while fostering bonding. Surrounded by scenic beauty and historical landmarks, students participated in interactive activities designed to enhance leadership, collaboration, communication, and stress management skills. The serene environment encouraged reflection on personal and professional goals, while group challenges promoted problem-solving and effective teamwork. Additionally, the visit broadened students' cultural awareness and provided a platform for informal networking, helping them build stronger peer relationships as they embarked on their academic journey together.

Alumni Achievement

Real Talk, Real Impact: Lessons from the Corporate World

Mr. G Shashikant Rao empowered the PGDM 2025–27 batch with valuable real-world insights and career wisdom. Drawing from his professional experiences, he highlighted the practical challenges and opportunities in today's corporate landscape, encouraging students to stay focused, resilient, and goal oriented. His interaction served as a bridge between campus life and the demands of the industry, leaving students motivated to shape their career paths with clarity and purpose.

Legacy in Action: Mr. Saurabh Banerjee Enlightens PGDM 2025–27 with Industry Insights

We were privileged to host Mr. Saurabh Banerjee, a distinguished alumnus from the PGDM Batch of 2013–15, for an impactful mentoring session with the PGDM 2025–27 cohort at IIBS.

Drawing upon his extensive industry experience and nuanced understanding of contemporary market dynamics, Mr. Banerjee shared strategic insights that deeply resonated with the aspiring management professionals. His session broadened the students' perspectives on career preparedness, leadership, and long-term professional growth. On behalf of IIBS and the Alumni Association, we extend our sincere appreciation for his time, expertise, and continued commitment to nurturing future leaders. Such engagements not only strengthen alumni relations but also foster a culture of mentorship, experiential learning, and shared success.

Guiding the Next Generation: Alumnus Mr. Vasu Jagannath Empowers PGDM 2025–27 Students

We are delighted to share that Mr. Vasu Jagannath, a distinguished alumnus from the PGDM Batch of 2015–17, delivered a compelling guest lecture on "Career Guidance for Management Professionals" to the PGDM 2025–27 (MOM Batch) on 25th July 2025

His session was a masterclass in professional development, offering a wealth of insights into emerging industry dynamics, strategic career planning, and the evolving role of management professionals in today's competitive landscape. Mr. Vasu's thought-provoking perspectives and real-world experiences resonated deeply with the audience, leaving an enduring impact. On behalf of IIBS and the Alumni Association, we extend our sincere gratitude to Mr. Vasu for his time, expertise, and unwavering commitment to giving back. Such engagements not only reinforce the strength of our alumni network but also cultivate a culture of mentorship, inspiration, and lifelong

Strategic Mentorship: Mr. Tushar Padole's Guidance for PGDM Aspirants

We extend our profound appreciation to Mr. Tushar Padole, an esteemed alumnus of the PGDM 2009–11 cohort, for his invaluable contribution to today's Alumni Interaction and Mentoring Session at IIBS

His remarkable professional journey, coupled with incisive and pragmatic career counsel, provided the PGDM 2025–27 (MOM Programme) students with nuanced insights into navigating the complexities of the contemporary business environment. Such engagements serve as a vital conduit between academic theory and industry practice, equipping our future leaders with the acumen, confidence, and strategic foresight essential for sustained success.

Nature as Classroom: Ramnagar Expedition for Future Managers

The newly inducted PGDM batch of IIBS Bangalore embarked on an exciting Adventure Learning Programme to Ramnagar, designed to foster leadership, teamwork, and resilience.

Surrounded by the scenic landscapes of Karnataka, students engaged in a variety of outdoor challenges, group tasks, and reflective activities. The programme not only strengthened their interpersonal skills but also ignited a spirit of exploration and confidence. It served as a perfect start to their academic journey, helping them build bonds and discover the leader within.
